ST. LAWRENCE DEFEATS HAMILTON IN SEA OF MUD

Accurate Forward Passing By Red Backfield Responsible For Two Touchdowns, Old Side-line Play Scores a Third. Hamilton Fights Hard at End.

FROM CAPTAIN AND COACHES.

"The game on Saturday was a great disappointment to those men who will never play another game on Steuben Field. It was a great disappointment to the coaches and to the College, but I will say that I honestly believe that the Team can come back after three stinging defeats, and can still bring victory back here on the Hill. But there must be the closest harmony these next few crucial days between the members of the Team and the College."

DON STONE.

"The absence of Leavenworth, the slow charging of the line, the lack of team play, save in the opening and closing minutes of the game, and the failure to diagnose the play of their opponents—these four things brought defeat. Time and again the opposing men came sifting through and nailed our man before he could get started. This will be the hardest week of practice that the Team has ever known. The forwards must get the jump upon the men against them. The backs must put out the opposing ends and backs. No shirking, no loafing will be tolerated by coach or College. The Team can win. It must win. The College demands a victory. The Team has it in them to win."

ALEX. THOMPSON, '06.

"Very poor interference characterized our playing ,and our backs were weak defensively. We followed the ball better than in the Rutgers' game, and showed the benefiits of last week's practice in that line. The men ought to train harder than ever, and the College ought to help them keep training. They have never played to the full limit."

DANIEL CHASE.

Of all the disappointments of a remarkable football season, the defeat of last Saturday at the hands of St. Lawrence by a score of 19 to 6, was probably the greatest. The northerners won, not by luck or on a fluke, but by superior football and better use of their plays. They had the discrimination that Hamilton lacked. Playing the entire first period without attempting a forward pass, they sprang a big surprise by adopting the play at the critical point of the second period, and as a result won the game. The Buff and Blue were not expecting such tactics, and as a result the Red team took Hamilton completely by surprise—and won the game.

The first quarter was not bad. In fact, it was a great improvement over the first quarter at Hobart, when Hamilton seemed to play as if in a stupor from which they failed to arouse themselves until too late. But one thing may be said about the first quarter—Hamilton used the forward pass far too frequently. Elated by its success in the first three or four attempts, the local team killed the play by giving its opponents plenty of opportunity to diagnose it. Then, when they had learned how to break up that formation, the St. Lawrence team proceeded to smash Hamilton's line bucks to smithereens and to break up end plays before they were fairly started.

But possibly the worst feature of the entire game, from the locals' point of view, was the worse-than-prep-school necktie tackling that was the rule, rather than the exception, with Hamilton play. Time after time the St. Lawrence men were scarcely retarded, simply because some Hamilton player preferred the neck to the knee as an objective point in his tackling. The second of the visitors' touchdowns was directly responsible from this. Every man, with but one exception, in Hamilton's backfield, had a chance to nail Calder, but everyone of them missed him simply because of low tackling. Two nights before the St. Lawrence game, the Team regulars were practising tackling at the dummy. There were a few men on the Team, and you could count them on half a hand, that tackled well, but for every one of them there were two who were giving one of the wretchedest examples of tackling that has ever been seen on Steuben Field.

The second quarter came and went, and with its passing went Hamilton's hope for victory. The St. Lawrence team, in the first quarter, had not attempted the forward pass to any extent. This action had drawn Hamilton's secondary defence well up to to the line of scrimmage. Then, when they had opened this avenue for attack, the Red team uncovered one of the best executed triple passes ever exhibited on Steuben Field. Calder caught the ball barely 15 yards behind the Hamilton line of scrimmage, and had an absolutely clear field for his 15 yards run to the Hamilton goal line.

Partially taught by this lesson, the Hamilton secondary defense played its proper position, only to be scored upon again within five minutes, because of wretched tackling. After this, Hamilton seemed to wake up somewhat, but suffered a temporary aberration toward the end of the third quarter, and allowed the Reds to score a third time on a play older than most of the men on either team.

CLEAN THAT SLATE, HAMILTON!

COLLEGE TO BE INVADED BY MOVING PICTURES

Alumnus Reported to Have Given Moving Picture Apparatus to Department of Photography.

That the College is to have a complete moving-picture outfit to be operated by the students under the direction of the Department of Photography was the rumor that spread like wild-fire on the Campus late yesterday afternoon.

On the authority of a gentleman, who wished his name withheld for the present, it was said that money had been contributed by an interested Alumnus for the purpose of buying a moving-picture camera, apparatus for the developing and printing of films, and a projecting camera.

It is planned to thus keep a complete photographic record of College events, the same to be exhibited at College functions.

Up to the time that the last forms of Life were closing, all efforts to obtain the name of the Alumnus had proved futile. It was rumored that the amount of the gift was $5,000, the exact figures depending upon the cost of the equipment.

—Rev. C. F. Goss, '73, has resigned his pastorate at Cincinnati and is resting at Daytonia, Fla.

—Colgate has discontinued her academy and the three buildings vacated are being used by the college.

WARREN, '12, IN DANGER AT CONSTANTINOPLE

No Late News From 1912 Man Who Is Teaching in Missionary College At Turkish Capital.

Considerable anxiety is being expressed on the Hill for the safety of Robert Beach Warren, '12, who is among the Christians at present confined within the walls of Constantinople.

Warren left this country early in August to enter the Albert College in Constantinople as a teacher. The College is composed largely of converted Turkish children with an English Faculty.

The last letters received from Warren stated that the situation was becoming dangerous. This was more than a month ago.

At present the Bulgarians are advancing upon Constantinople with alarming rapidity, and in case they should besiege the city, a massacre of the Christians within the walls by the fanatical Turks is greatly feared.

DRUMMOND, '12, BACK.

R. W. Drummond, '12, arrived on the Hill yesterday, and will assist in coaching the Team this week.

Roswell Bates, '95, will speak in Silliman Hall on Thursday evening, Nov. 21. He will tell about his own work among the poor in New York.

On To Union.

But one chance remains for the College and the Team to redeem themselves and to close the season with a victory, which, in a measure, will wipe out the disheartening defeats of the last three weeks.

To lose at Schenectady will mean that the season of 1912 will go down as one of the most disastrous in the history of Hamilton football. It will mean that Hamilton will be the butt of an unlimited amount of ridicule, and, perhaps, justly.

The St. Lawrence game is over. So are the contests against Hobart and Rutgers. But for all that, they stand out—dark spectres in the season of 1912.

It is time for the College and the Team to come out of the shadows. It is time to come out in the sunlight, and show Union that the much vaunted Hamilton spirit is not a myth—but a reality.

It is time for some of the men who have made the Team and are content with an "H" to take a brace and play football.

There has never been a football captain in Hamilton College who has worked harder and more effectively than Don Stone, never a captain who has had the interests of the team more at heart. The actions of certain men during the past weeks, as regards training, are a disgrace to the College and a personal insult to Stone himself.

Hamilton's captain had no business in the game on Saturday. Still suffering from the effects of injuries recieved in the Hobart contest, he insisted upon going back into the game, and played like a demon.

But behind Stone were certain men who didn't have sufficient control of themselves to observe the most fundamental rules of training. They brought discredit, not only upon the College, but upon the other members of the squad who have trained and practised faithfully throughout the entire season.

So much for the past.

Union must be beaten. Only through combined efforts of the Team and the College can this be done. The Team says that the College hasn't given them the deserved support and the College says that the Team hasn't deserved any.

Never mind about that. Forget it. There is no time to quibble. Union must be humbled and it can be done. The Team can take a brace and the College can get out on Steuben Field and show a little live spirit.

Every man in Hamilton College ought to be at Schenectady game. It is not only your privilege. It is your duty.

Plan now to go to Union! Get out to cheering practice every night. Learn the parodies. Let the Team know that you are behind them.

Don't give up.

HAMILTON CAN STILL FINISH WITH HONOR.

LIFE EXTRA AT 5:12 P. M.

St. Lawrence Extra Greets Crowds Coming Down the Hill.

Life broke its own record in issuing football extras on Saturday when an edition containg a full account of the St. Lawrence game, play by play, was placed on the streets for sale at 5:12 p. m. The edition contained five columns of "set-matter" on the game and was on the streets 13 minutes after the final whistle.

Thirteen men had a hand in the writing, composition and selling of the extra. A Life reporter on the side-lines followed the ball and sent bulletins, play by play, to the telephone behind the bleachers, where a second reporter was ready to send them over a special telephone wire to Browning's. Here the story of the game was type-written, as the play progressed, and rushed to the linotype.

Ten minutes before the crowd reached the center of town, competitors for the managership of Life were on the streets with the extras.

TWELVE PEACE ORATIONS

At an informal conference held in Chapel on Saturday noon, a poll sowed that 12 men will write Peace Contest Orations in case preliminaries are held.

No definite action can be taken in the matter until the consent of the Faculty is obtained and the proposition of financing the preliminaries are settled.

The details of the contest were published in last week's Life.

SHERWIN COMING (?)

Sunday's "Batavia Times" states that Sherwin, '10, has accepted a position as secretary to President M. Woolsey Stryker. When questioned by a Life reporter yesterday, Dr. Stryker declined to discuss the statement further than to deny its veracity.

HILL NOTES

—The baseball game scheduled with Stevens for May 30 has been cancelled on account of a conflict in the latter's schedule. On account of Faculty ruling, Lafayete will probably be unable to play here on May 16.

—Brown and Felt, '14, have been elected to the French Club.

—McLean, '16, who was compelled by illness to leave the Hill, has returned to College.

—Prof. Davenport will resume his regular classes this week. Prof. Ferguson, who has been taking his place during the campaign, will return to Columbia University, where he is working for a Master's degree.

EXCELLENT CONCERT

Prof. Saunders to Hold Musical on November 30.

Dr. A. P. Saunders is planning another of his excellent concerts in the chamber music, which he expects will be held at Sigma Phi Hall, on November 30. In addition to his brother, Prof. F. A. Saunders, of Syracuse University, and Mr. Edgar Alderick, of Utica, who will take part, the professor is endeavoring to add Misses Littlehales and North of the Olive Mead Quartette, who were on the Hill last year. The fourth member of the stringed quartette will be Mr. Robert Hafen Schauffler, the well-known musical authority, who has done considerable on various musical themes. A copy of Mr. Schaffler's book, "The Musical Amateur," is in the College Library. Notices of the concert will be sent out in advance of the date.

LATIN CLUB MEETS

A meeting of the Latin Club was held on Wednesday evening. Prof. Chase read "The Captives," by Platus, as it is to be played by the club this winter, and discussed the characters. Try-outs will be held, and parts assigned as soon as possible.

—Charles Hawley occupied the pulpit of the Kirkland Crurch on November 3.

—One "Hamiltonian" has been added to the Library collection in response to Life's request of a few weeks ago.

—Bill Moore, ex-'10, will soon be on the Hill to coach the Team for the Union game.

MORE CAMPUS LIGHTS

Details Worked Out and Equipment On the Way

The details of the plans for a more adequate lighting of the Campus have been completed, and Mr. Joseph Rudd, '90, to whom the Trustees have entrusted the work, expects that the necessary equipment will arrive within a short time.

The design is not to illumine the Campus throughout, but merely to furnish more head lights at the main objective points. Two lights already illumine the approach to the Chapel. A light, very similar, but much brighter, will protrude from an advantageous position on South College, the Gymnasium, the Library, Carnegie, Science Hall, and the Commons.

With lights already stationed at Silliman Hall, Alpha Delt, D. U., and Sigma Phi Halls, it is thought that the addition of these six lights will afford sufficient illumination.

DEATH OF BISSELL, '63.

On November 5th, in Litchfield, Conn., occurred the death of Rev. Linus Parsons Bissell, '63, D. D., a former resident of Clinton. Mr. Bissell was a member of the Chi Psi Fraternity. He received an Honorary D. D. in 1899 and his Phi Beta Kappa key in 1904. His was a long, active career as a teacher, a lawyer, and a minister, serving for a time previous to his death as the rector of an Episcopal Church in Litchfield, Conn. Burial service was held on Friday in St. James Church, Clinton, Rev. Crydenwise officiating. The bearers were Davis and Myer, '13, Bissell and Ogilvie, '14.

No Allowance For Increased Cost of Living

Catalogue Attempts to Fool "Folks Back Home"—Every Man in College Said to Give Manning $50 a Year.

Apropos of the agitation concerning the ever-increasing cost of living, Carl B. Wenigmann has been appointed by the Council for Undergraduate Activities to investigate conditions on the Hill, and make a comprehensive report at the College dinner next Thursday. The Council has spared nothing in its attempt to discover ultimate causes and to remedy existing evils.

A Life reporter last evening managed to secure an interview with Dr. Wood, president of the Council, and it is apparent from facts learned that radical measures are being taken. Dr. Wood said:

"In 1893, the College catalogue appeared in its present form. Nothing has been added except some incomprehensible English. Now, I believe in honest politics, in publicity of campaign funds. I don't think money matters should be so secretively mystical. That's why I'm opposed to the catalogue's constant attempt at fooling the "folks back home." Let me read you what it says: "An allowance of $400 implies scrupulous care, one of $450 is comfortable, $550 is liberal, and any sum above $650 is profuse. That might have applied in the old days before the Hotel Utica was opened, and there wasn't any "Alcohol Special," but now it's positively absurd. I'll tell you this much about the Council investigation. There's graft around here, and where there is graft, prices are always high. Why, Wenigmann frankly admits he made enough on the Freshman hats to put him on easy street. I hope I'm not reactionary, but I'm very much opposed to the archaic expense account in the catalogue. $650—Why, there's not a fellow in College that doesn't give John Manning fifty dollars a year."

Prof. S. J. Saunders, who is also interested in the investigation, and who heartily condemns the catalogue's present budget of $650, told a reporter last evening that Annette Kellerman didn't use to play in Utica, and that Bronx Cocktails are comparatively new drink.

HILL NOTES

HAMILTON ALUMNI IN TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS

Davenport and Drummond, '01, Beaten, But Meagher, '99, and Farrell, '05, Named District Attorneys.

Hamilton men, who for the past two months have devoted their time to politics, have forsaken the stump and are again back in the harness, some the possessors of public office, others ready to try again.

Prof. Frederick M. Davenport, of the Faculty, as running mate for Oscar M. Straus, fell before the fusilade of Democratic ballots, and was defeated for Lieutenant-Governor by Martin H. Glynn. Richard C. Drummond, '01, of Auburn, running on the Democratic ticket for the office of Congressman from the 36th District, was defeated after a hard fight by Sereno E. Payne, the present incumbent.

In Broome County, where C. M. McLean, '09, was one of the foremost workers, Frederick J. Meagher, '99, was elected District Attorney on the Republican ticket. His endorsement by the Progressives helped to give him a plurality of 600.

Another Hamilton District Attorney was elected in Herkimer County where William E. Farrell, '05, Democratic, was given a plurality of 64 over his opponent. Evans, '90, made a strong run in Rome for the office of City Judge on the Progressive ticket, but was defeated by his Democratic opponent. Sherwin, '10, who has been leading the forces of the Bull Moose in Genesee County, succeeded in cutting the Republican vote in half.

DR. JESSUP at Y. M. C. A.

New York Lawyer Speaks On His Profession.

Dr. Henry W. Jessup, a lawyer of twenty years' experience in New York City, spoke at the Y. M. C. A., on Friday night, on the "Law as a Vocation for a Christian Man." He gave a very valuable and excellent talk, dealing with his topic in a clear and practical way. "The law makes a proper and just appeal to a Christian man" was the keynote of his speech, "for it is honorable, beneficial and satisfying. There is great opportunity for giving material aid to his community, for charity, and for encountering all the forces which, if conquered, are formative of strong character. Strong, upright men are needed in the profession today. Both bench and bar are striving to drive out from their midst the tricky, dishonest lawyers, and are succeeding."

Mr. Jessup is a graduate of Princeton, is prominent in the Presbyterian Church, an authority on ecclesiastical law, having written several law books and has been a professor in the New York Law School. Since 1906 he has been practising law in New York.

—The 25th anniversary of Rev. T. F. Jessup, '64, as pastor of the Boonville Presbyterian Church, was observed with appropriate exercises on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Jessup is, next to Dr. D. W. Bigelow, of Utica, the oldest minister in duration of pastorate in the Presbytery of Utica.

—The Baseball game with Stevens arranged for May 30, has been cancelled on account of a conflict in the Stevens schedule.

—The "Hamiltonian" Board met on Wednesday in South, when further plans were considered. A competition to secure drawings and sketches by members of the College was approved.

WHEN HAMILTON MEN MAKE GOOD.

Back in '86, when Hamilton men went on a mental spree in Ovid on Saturday nights an d took an hour or two to toss off three or four books of Virgil, football didn't amount to very much. But there was a team for all that, and even if there is no record of "shoestrings" and "lots of pep" and "wait until 'Bugs' Thompson gets there," we know that what was called a football team did exist and among the men mentioned as "rushers" is found the name of a certain William Horace Hotchkiss.

As kickers go Hotchkiss was good, so good in fact that he scored a Phi Beta Kappa key from the field. Twenty years later, he had kicked himself in New York State politics with such momentum that the "old guard" of the Republican and Democratic parties had visions of altogether too many goals from the 40-yard line. Just at present, Hotchkiss is drawing a long breath after a hard tussle, but he is still in the fight for all that, in the fight with the statement that the work of the State Progressive party has just begun and that he, in his capacity of State Chairman, is confident of a clean sweep on the gubernatorial gridiron at the next election.

Mr. Hotchkiss may keep a very sharp eye on the political situation, but his other optic is always on the look-out for Hamilton men. After graduation in 1886, he began making acquaintance with Hamilton Alumni in and about Auburn, where he practised law until 1891, moving to Buffalo where he later became Referee in Bankruptcy for the Northern District of New York. For the next ten years he attended strictly to his law practice, snatching an occasional opportunity to write for the "North American Review," the "Forum" and other magazines. Then came the big opportunity.

Charles E. Hughes had just made a name for himself in the Insurance Investigation, so much of a name, in fact, that the people of the state insisted upon electing him governor. A man was needed to fill his shoes. The work which he had begun was not finished. To abondon it there, was to let down the flood gates of graft, to throw up the sponge to the insurance men and go back to the old ways of evil. A man was needed, and the man was Hotchkiss.

For the next two years, the Commissioner of Insurance was the gentleman with the pugilistic toe. The work which Hughes had begun was never allowed to slacken in its pace. The fraudulent companies had hoped that with the election of its enemy, Hughes, there would be a cessation of hostilities, but the companies were fooled, for Hotchkiss was the man on the spot, and when he landed it was with both feet.

Mr. Hotchkiss ended his activities as Insurance Commissioner in 1911. With the intention of again resuming his law practice, he left Albany, but he was again to come before the public. The past summer saw him at Chicago in the mob of Republican delegates which crowded into the Auditorium. Realizing the hopelessness of nominating Taft and fearful of the disaster that might befall the Republican party by the naming of Roosevelt, he saw a solution of the problem in the nomination of Hughes. Thus it was that the boom to name the former governor of New York was started—started by a Hamilton man.

Mr. Hughes couldn't and wouldn't accept the nomination, he said, but that didn't deter Hotchkiss. The Hughes boom continued, and it was only at the last moment when a telegraphic ultimatum arrived that he ceased his efforts to nominate a suitable compromise candidate.

For the past three months, Mr. Hotchkiss has been furthering the interests of the Bull Moose in this state. Only political organizers can realize the tremendous task of putting a third party in the field, the genius for organization that is required, the firmness and tenacity of purpose. From the heterogeneous elements which rose in protest against the old established parties, Mr. Hotchkiss evolved a strong, fighting, political machine. In less than three weeks fifty counties were organized, speakers' bureaus were established, and the new state party was born.

Where Mr. Hotchkiss will eventually land remains to be seen, but it is a mighty safe bet that he will be heard from again.

Mr. Hotchkiss entered Hamilton in the Class of 1886, and was a member of the Chi Psi Fraternity.

ST. LAWRENCE BEATS HAMILTON, 19-6

The side-line play was a complete success, and Gardener scored a touchdown from the 10-yard line, running the last half of the distance with a Hamilton tackler frantically hanging on-around his neck.

That was all for St. Lawrence—but it was enough. The local team was at last aroused—quid proderit? The one touchdown is good to look upon, but, if Hamilton, by means of a substitute halfback could gain almost at will around St. Lawrence's right end in the final quarter, why could they not have done so in the first three? If the lightest man on the squad, with one exception, could make monkeys of the St. Lawrence's ends, just because that man had pep, with a capital P, why couldn't the heavy line men top Canfield and Gardener, who time and again ripped off 10 and 15 yards through the line?

PRESS CLUB AGAIN IS FLOURISHING

President Porter, '13, Returns to College and Takes Charge of Work. First Bulletin Out This Week.

The work of the Press Club, which has been somewhat held up in the absence of Porter, '13, the president, from College, will be resumed this week, when the first bulletin of the year will be sent out to the 100 papers on the club's mailing list.

In 1911-12, under the leadership of Harry Bates, '12, the Press Club awoke to a realization of its opportunities to do valuable work for the College. Last year, fifty newspapers, in communities represented by Hamilton men, were printing news from the Hill. Personal items were regularly sent to these newspapers, in addition to frequent bulletins of current Hamilton news.

This year, it is the plan of the Club to publish these bulletins at least twice a month. Personals also will be emphasized, and special attention will be directed toward the preparatory schools. All the items will be open to competition, especially the personals, which will be sent out through the local department in charge of Barnes, '15. Most of the subjects for the bulletins and the special articles will be assigned.

Aside from the news, the Club will put out a very neatly designed calendar. It will be very different from that of 1912. The cover is to be either white or tan leather, with a colored picture of South inserted at the top. The size of the calendar will be about 10 by 12

The Marlin Repeating Shotgun

12 or 16 GAUGE

Made famous by its dependability. The solid top and side ejection keep gases and powder away from your eyes; help quick, effective repeat shots. Rain, sleet, snow and foreign matter can't get into the action. The mechanism is strong, simple, wear-resisting. The double extractors pull any shell instantly; two special safety devices prevent accidental discharge while action is unlocked, and an automatic recoil block makes hang fires harmless. All Marlins are strongly made, finely balanced, accurate, hard hitting guns, and are the quickest and easiest to take down and clean. Illustration shows Model 24 grade "A" 12 gauge; it has all the features that make for a perfect gun.

UNION

With Schenectady rooters eager to place an almost unlimited amount of money on Union, Hamilton will line up against the Garnet at Schenectady on Saturday, in the last game of the season. Practically the entire College will accompany the Hamilton team. Cheering practice will be held daily throughout the remainder of the week, and a big College dinner will take place in Commons on Thursday night.

Union enters the Hamilton game this year after one of the most brilliant football seasons in her history. With a new coach, unusually strong Freshman football material and a firm determination to end the season with a victory against Hamilton, thus effacing the overwhelming defeat of last year, the Garnet has ploughed through the season with but a single defeat, the Wesleyan game, which was lost by a score of 28-3.

Hamilton has no such favorable record, but will go into the game with a fixed intention to end the season with a victory, and such a victory as will wipe out defeats at the hands of Hobart, Rutgers, and St. Lawrence.

For the remainder of the week every possible effort will be made to insure a favorable showing at Schenectady. The football coaches predict the most strenuous week ever put in by a football team on Steuben Field. Grim determination will characterize every move. The slogan of "we'll get 'em next time" is at last worn out. The coaches and players realize that after the Union game, there will be no "next time," that it is a case of "now or never."

The College will be busy from now until Saturday, preparing to accompany the Team. Copies of the new football parodies are being distributed, and at the daily cheering practices frantic efforts will be made to improve upon the ragged singing which characterized the work of the bleachers in the St. Lawrence contest.

As a culmination of the College's efforts to support the Team, there will be a big dinner in Commons Hall on Thursday night at 6 o'clock. Every undergraduate is expected to be there, prepared to cheer the team to the echo. There will be speeches from the coaches, Capt. Stone, and probably some undergraduate. An effort is being made to insure the presence of "Dick" Drummond, '01, and Sid Sherwin, '10.

Some time Friday evening the tickets for the game will arrive, and will at once be placed on sale by the local football management. It is urged that every Hamilton man purchase his ticket before going to Schenectady, in order that there may be no delay upon the arrival at the Union Campus.

Efforts are being made, and there is no reason to doubt that they will be successful, to secure the postponment of Saturday Chapel and such other classes as will interfere with the College taking the morning train for Schenectady. The College will leave the Hill at 11 o'clock, arrive Clinton at 11:30, and embark for Schenectady upon the New York Central at 12:25. Special coaches will be added for the Hamilton rooters.

On the train, cheer leaders and their representatives will have the Hamilton caps, which every man is expected to wear. The hats are of blue felt, with H. C. in buff: they will cost twenty-five cents.

Upon the arrival of the Hamilton rooters in Schenectady, they will be met by the Johnstown band which will escort them to the Union Campus and aid the Buff and blue cheering section throughout the afternoon.

Union's record thus far follows:

Amherst Aggies 0, Union 0
Worchester 6, Union 7.
Rochester 0, Union 0.
Rutgers 0, Union 3.
Wesleyan 28, Union 3.
Stevens 6, Union 14.

Of the twelve games which have been played between Hamilton and Union, the Garnet has won one, Hamilton seven, while four have been ties. The complete record of games follows:

1893	Hamilton	14	Union	6

THE HILL FESTIVE NUMEROUS DANCES

Sigma Phi, Psi Upsilon, Theta Delta Chi and Emersonians Entertain at Week-End Parties.

With four Fraternity dances on the Hill on Friday and Saturady evenings and almost a hundred co-eds from St. Lawrence in attendance at Saturday's game, it was a case of "girls, girls, girls" practically the last two days of the past week. And some of them stayed over Sunday.

At Emerson Hall on Friday night, "Waiting For The Robert E. Lee," fought for supremacy against a warm discussion for Hamilton's chances in Saturday's game; but everybody had a good time. On Saturday night Sigma Phi, Theta Delta Chi and Psi Upsilon entertained.

The Emerson Hall guests were: Miss Burch, of Ilion; Miss Bloss, of Blossvale; Miss Harvey, of Mechanicsville; Miss Brenneman, of San Jose, Cal.; Miss Bliss, of Southold, L. I.; Miss Rorke, of East Bloomfield; Miss Adams, of Syracuse; Miss Batchelor, of Camden; Misses Mackie and Miller, of Utica; Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fitch, '86; Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Dudley, '95, Mr. and Mrs. Crydenwise, of Clinton; Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Thompson, '06, of Little Britain, Pa.; Worden, '09, and Love, '09.

At the Theta Delta Chi House on Saturday night the guests were: Miss Smith, Miss Bush, Miss Whipple and Miss Russell, of Oneonta; Miss Miller, Miss Graff, Miss Couch, Miss Sauer, and Miss Searle, of Utica; Miss Skinner, of Watertown; Miss Moor, of Oswego; Mrs. McGowan and Miss Lydia Brooks, of Ilion; Miss Lathrop, of Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. Merwyn Nellis, of Albany; Prof. and Mrs. Chase, Prof. and Mrs. Shepard, Prof. Ristine and Prof. Ferguson, of Clinton, Barker, of Hobart, and Miss Lieberman, Utica. Tunbridge catered, and the music was furnished by Prof. Curtis, of Utica.

At Sigma Phi Place, Mrs. A. F. Callahan, of Winnetka, Ill., Mrs. Evans, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Wooden, of New York City, chaperoned. The guests, in addition to the members of the Faculty and their wives, were the Misses Curtis, Evans, Harding, Glover and McKale, of Philadelphia; the Misses Gere, Peckham and Smith, of Utica; Miss Johnson and Miss Skinner, of Vassar; Miss Potter, of Louisville, and Miss Wooden, of New York. Among the Alumni present were: Rogers, '87, Cody, '08, Judson, '10. Music was furnished by Ryan, of Utica, and Tunbridge catered.

Among the guests at the Psi U. House were: Miss Margaret McNutt, of Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Kathryn Welch, of Clinton; Miss Ruth Adams, of Weedsport; Miss Edith Peter, of Buffalo; Miss Irene Gillespie, Albany; Miss Ruth Shoemaker, New York; Misses Anna and Mildred Crowe, Utica; Miss Pearl Van Sickler, Jamaica; Miss Francis Thomas, Buffalo; Miss Gladys Davies, Camden. Messrs Dorrance Davies, Camden, Hayes Tate, Gloversville. The chaperons were Mrs. A. B. Wassung, Johnstown, Mrs. J. C. Davies, Camden, and Mrs E. J Mix, Albion. The Alumni present were Hopkins and Thomas, '12, Willoughby, '09, Williams, '08.

—The University of Pittsburg opened its 126th year with the dedication of a new $150,000 Gymnasium.

PLANS FOR DEBATE TRIALS COMPLETED

Nineteen Men from Junior Class Will Compete for Team which is to Meet Seniors in December.

The first step in what promises to be Hamilton's most successful debate season, will be taken on Tuesday, November 19,, at 4 o'clock in Truax Hall, when the Debate Council will meet to select four speakers who wish to compete for the Team. Prof. Lewis has arranged for two debates for that afternoon, the first with five men on a side and the second with five on the affirmative and four on the negative.

In the first group on the affirmative will be Booth, Bristol, Burns, Dayton, and Regin; on the negative, Bissell, Carmer, Marsh, Pohl and Gates. The second division will consist of Cole, Lyon, McGibeny, Mengerink and Walker on the affirmative, with Clapp, Rhodes, Royce and Williamson opposing them. The question to be used in this debate, and probably in most of the other contests throughout the year, deals with the reation of the high cost of living to a tariff for revenue only.

The exact date for the Senior tryouts has not yet been announced, but it is probable that the Debate Council will meet to hear the eight men from '13 during the early part of next week. The Senior-Junior Debate will be held just before the Christmas recess.

Exactly what contests will be entered by Hamilton Debating Teams this year, aside from the two debates in the Triangular League, is a good deal of a question. A meeting of men interested in debating was held after Chapel on Saturday noon, and an invitation to form a league with Bowdoin and Wesleyan was thoroughly gone over, the prevailing sentiment being in favor of such an alliance. A debate may also be held with Cornell. It was the concensus of opinion that as many teams as possible should be put into the field, rather than that a selected first team should be entitled in all the contests.
